

Your journey to the Sunshine Coast begins once you board the Ferry in Horseshoe Bay. In only 40 minutes you will arrive at the Langdale terminal, so take a short rest and enjoy the sights as you cross the Inlet. Driving off the Ferry, you will soon arrive in the first town along your way to Creekside Cottage. Gibsons is the home "The Beachcombers" and offers a splendid coastal view. During the 26 km drive to the next main town, Sechelt, you will pass the quaint communities of Roberts Creek, Wilson Creek and sandy beaches of Davis Bay.

Upon entering Sechelt drive until you come to the third set of lights. You will turn right onto Wharf Street. Continue driving on Wharf Street for four blocks, preparing to turn right onto Porpoise Bay Road. It's a 9 km drive out of Sechelt to Creekside and during your journey to our comfortable cottage you'll pass Porpoise Bay Provincial Park, the small community of Sandy Hook and finally the northernmost community of Tuwanek. Your cottage awaits at 7622 Sechelt Inlet Road, watch for the bear carved in the tree right across from the public beach.

